

Kate Greenaway Almanacks

Kate Greenaway Almanacks

The beginning of 1883 saw the first of Kate Greenaways almanacks published by George Routledge and Sons (Engraved and printed in colour by Edmund Evans). The 1883 almanack price was 1 shilling with over 90,000 copies sold throughout America, England, Germany and France. Kate continued to produce a yearly almanack up until 1895. Kate Greenaway then went on to produce only one more almanack in 1897. Each almanack was produced with different variations as well as different languages. Today a completed set of almanack will fetch many thousands of dollars.

If you click the link on the almnack name it will open a new window with a list of almanacks for sale.

Almanack 1883

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1884

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1885

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1886

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1887

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1888

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1889

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1890

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1891

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1892

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1893

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1894

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1895

George Routledge & Sons Almanack 1897

J M Dent & Co